

27. Unto which of the angels said He at any time.
28. Let all the angels of God worship Him.
29. Why do the heathen so furiously rage together?
30. He that dwelleth in heaven.
31. Thou shalt break then.
32. Hallelujah.
33. I know that my Redeemer liveth.
34. Since by man came death.
35. Behold, I tell you a mystery.
36. The trumpet shall sound.
37. Worthy is the Lamb that was slain.

SYMPHONY CONCERT

CAROLINE CRAWSHAW (soprano)
 MICHAEL FREYHAN (harpsichord)
 THE ST. BEES FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA
 (Leader: Colin Gough)
 Conductor: DONALD LEGGAT

PART ONE

- | | |
|------------------------------------|----------------|
| 1. Overture: Coriolan | Beethoven |
| 2. Three Shanties for Wind Quintet | Malcolm Arnold |
| 3. Nine Shakespeare Songs | Arne |

It is fitting that Arne's Nine Shakespeare Songs should be published in their original scoring during the poet's quatercentenary year — but astonishing that they have not been printed in full score for well over a hundred years. These songs are quite lovely and show the composer's qualities of frank delight and charm at their most sensitive.

Some of the songs will be familiar in corrupt versions with piano accompaniment.

1. Under the greenwood tree.
2. Blow, blow thou winter wind.
3. The Cuckoo Song (when daisies pied).
4. The Owl (When icicles hang by the wall).
5. Come away, death.
6. Tell me where is fancy bred.
7. Come into these yellow sands.
8. Ariel's Song (Where the bee sucks).
9. Dirge in Cymbeline.
